CULINARY ADVENTURES

'RAISE A GLASS': A FOOD & WINE EXPERIENCE IN HEFER VALLEY

A tour suitable for the afternoon and evening.

In recent years, Israel has made a meteoric leap in everything related to the quality of the wine it produces. Alexander Winery is one of the wineries that demonstrates this perfectly and in an experiential way. The tour starts at the point of receiving the grapes and goes through the container farm and the barrel cellar. The tour tells the process of making wine from the grape to the bottle, alongside the fascinating story of the winery owners' family. During the tour we will get to taste 4 different types of wines that the winery produces, and with the unreasonable assumption that someone else will remain thirsty after this, a visit to a nearby brewery is also planned for us, which includes learning about the quality of raw materials and the unique production process of the brewery. Here, too, guided tastings of about six different types of beer (at least half a liter per person) await us, which will sum up our tour perfectly and ... joyfully!

URBAN ADVENTURES

IS IT A TOUR? A DANCE? A SHOW? IT'S ALL IN ONE!

Welcome to Yalla Disco, the most exciting, fun, engaging and unusual experience you have ever had. It's a non-stop activity that brings together the thrilling flash mob experience, rhythm, disco and tons of fun into a well-crafted urban experience. 'A TRUE INSPIRATION': JERUSALEM'S OLD CITY CRAFTSMENS

Discover the allure of the Old City in a fascinating journey to the world of craftsmen, artists, and merchants whose occupations disappeared from the local view.

Join us for an inspiring encounter with talented and hardworking people, whose craft and art, as well as their loyalty to tradition, was passed down from one generation to the next. We'll explore the colorful streets of the market, visit small shops, humble nooks and hear those craftsmen's stories, taking us down the alleys of time to forgotten worlds and the Jerusalem of the past.

GRAFFITI AND STREET ART TOUR

Take a tour at the heart of Tel Aviv's underground street art scene, in Florentine. The streets of Florentine have become a colorful and vibrant art gallery, just waiting to be discovered.

Among the woodshops, workshops and the neighborhood's streets, we will come across masterpieces by prominent artists, who rose in the end of the 90's and were preserved until this very day. We'll review new works by new artists who have recently made their way to the neighborhood, and exceptional works by international artists who found our streets especially magical.

BEHIND THE SCENES OF THE ULTRA-ORTHODOX WORLD IN BNEI BRAK TOUR

Once a week, there's a special moment, when everyone takes a moment, shifts gears, and you can almost feel it in the air - Shabbat is almost there. This is a fascinating tour about the ultra-Orthodox world, its different lifestyle, dress code, language, and customs. Visiting there is like traveling through time to a Jewish town of the olden days.

We'll learn about Shidduch (matchmaking), Sabbath and holiday customs, peek into the everyday life, the sounds of prayer and Shofar and the dazzling smells of fresh Challahs and traditional foods from the eateries and local restaurants.

BEHIND THE SCENES OF THE ULTRA-ORTHODOX WORLD IN JERUSALEM TOUR

There's a special feeling in the air when Shabbat is near – you can almost taste it at the tip of your tongue. This is a mesmerizing tour of the ultra-Orthodox community in the close-knit secluded neighborhood of Mea Shearim in Jerusalem.

The Jewish saying “wherever there are two Jews you will find three synagogues” was never truer than at this ultra-Orthodox community, where there are endless religious groups that might be distinct from one another just by the color of their socks.

We'll learn some essential Jewish traditions, such as Shidduch (matchmaking), Sabbath and holiday customs, immerse in the streets, the sounds of prayer and Shofar and the dazzling smells of fresh Challahs and traditional foods from the eateries and local restaurants.

CROSS-COUNTRY TOURS

THE GREEN NORTH

FULL DAY TOUR

The ultimate freshener for the Israeli summer: an "escape" trip to the northern tip of the Israeli Galilee, along with a special historical-archeological-botanical tour of the magical Dan Reserve followed by an experiential kayak ride on one of the tributaries of the Jordan River. In between, enjoy an all-you-can-eat lunch of fresh pizzas and focaccia. Hot, fresh and most importantly - delicious!

AUTHENTIC EXPERIENCE IN THE DESERT

FULL DAY TOUR

A special encounter with the desert nomads, the Bedouins at "Kfar Hanokdim", near the city of Arad: authentic traditional hospitality, open conversation and a one-time chance to ride a camel, also known in our area as the "Desert Ship". Then - a short drive to the lowest place on earth to enjoy a unique bathing/floating experience in the Dead Sea, a real world treasure.

DESERT AND OASIS

FULL DAY TOUR

An easy and charming trip to the unique nature reserve of Ein Gedi. A close encounter with the local animals and, surprisingly, an abundant water source that enables all of this natural richness. From there, we will take a short drive to bathe / float in the lowest place in the world, enjoy the pastoral serenity and be surrounded by the beauty of creation

BOAT RIDING, ANTIQUES AND A BIT OF GEOLOGY

FULL DAY TOUR

In an exciting way! We will start the day with a fun cruise between Haifa and Acre. We will walk the streets of Acre, one of the oldest and most fascinating cities in Israel, visit the wonderful "Knights' Halls" and wander among the stalls of the old market, a meeting place for fresh goods and picturesque scenery. We will finish the day with a visit to one of the most impressive sites in the country - Rosh Hanikra Caves, a unique cave system that is excavated, even today, naturally by the waves. The visit will also include a cable car ride and a 3D movie that will explain everything.

3000 YEARS OF JERUSALEM

FULL DAY TOUR

A special trip that will give us a peek at what is invisible to the eye. An underground tour of the recent years' excavations, which gives the visitor a tangible glimpse into 'Jerusalem of the old days' of Kings David, Solomon and beyond. Afterwards, we will tour the city through a walk at the alleys of the Old City, where we will hear and experience the history of Jerusalem, the holy city of the three monotheistic religions.

3000 YEARS OF JERUSALEM FOR BNEI MITZVAH

FULL DAY TOUR

A day of exciting experiences, beginning with a bar / bat mitzvah ceremony at the Western Wall. After that, we will tour the special underground sites of the old city, where we will see up close the Jerusalem of the days of the kings, conquerors and everyone who has found interest in it over the years. Next - enjoy an easy walk through the alleys of the Old City, "discovering" some of its secrets and might even get to experience some of the modern city through a walk on Ben Yehuda street.

JERUSALEM NIGHT VIBES

HALF DAY TOUR

After a dinner at the hotel, we will enjoy a night visit to the "Tower of David" museum, a site that tells the history of Jerusalem through 6 wide halls, each dedicated to a different time period in the city's history. We will climb up to a magical viewpoint from the Petzal Tower, the highest in the complex, and walk back down to a spectacular light and sound experience, which summarizes the story of the city in an experiential and memorable way. Next - a short walking tour of the walls, which reaches as far as the Western Wall, for a night prayer or placing a note, as in the tradition.

THE JEWISH QUARTER AT THE OLD CITY

an experiential short but comprehensive tour, starting at the City of David National Park, exploring its fascinating finds from the days of King David onwards. Followed by a visit to the "Davidson Center" at the old city and end the day of course, at the Western Wall.
