I was introduced to Maccabi as a high-school athlete at Beverly Hills High School (1969). After my father passed away in 1978, I honored his never-wavering support of all my endeavors by subsequently attending Sponsors Missions ('85, '89, '93); which then opened my eyes and heart and philanthropy to the State of Israel and it's cultural history and deeply-rooted faiths. As a chairman, I was able to personally "pay-it-forward" to numerous younger athletes and friends and family.

Legacy Society will continue to embrace and enhance those values.
