

MACCABIUSA MEDAL OF HONOR

DEBBIE ADAMS

Debbie Adams is a distinguished athlete and leader whose long-standing involvement with the Maccabiah spans more than three decades. As a talented golfer, she proudly represented the U.S. in the 1989, 1993, 2009, 2013, and 2017 Maccabiot, earning an impressive collection of five Gold, two Silver, and one Bronze. Her exceptional performance on the course was highlighted in 1993 when she held the golf course record, cementing her reputation as a top competitor in international Jewish sport.

Beyond her athletic achievements, Debbie has played a vital leadership role in shaping the future of Maccabi Golf and the Games as a whole. She served as Chair for Golf in 2009, 2013, and 2017, and as Golf Manager in both 2013 and 2017. Expanding her leadership impact, she chaired the European Games in 2019, was Vice Chair of the Maccabiah in 2022, and served as Co-Chairperson for this summer's Maccabiah. From 2017 to 2025, Debbie has also contributed as Maccabi USA Vice President, demonstrating her dedication to fostering excellence, community, and sportsmanship within the Maccabi movement.
