

MACCABIUSA MEDAL OF HONOR

STUART WEITZMAN

Stuart Weitzman has spent a lifetime turning his love for design into an internationally acclaimed brand. His shoes, worn by celebrities like Beyoncé, Kate Middleton, Taylor Swift, and Selena Gomez, are celebrated for their elegance and innovation. His passion for helping young Jewish athletes achieve their dreams began with his support for the Israel Tennis and Education Centers, having recently helped build the flagship facility in Jerusalem.

This commitment to Jewish youth expanded when he became deeply involved with Maccabi USA and Maccabi World Union, competing in the 2013, 2017, and 2022 Maccabiah, serving as the U.S. Flagbearer in 2022, and earning a Bronze medal in table tennis. Weitzman's recent $5M endowment—the largest gift in the history of Maccabi USA—launched the Stuart Weitzman Scholarship Fund, which will provide the life-changing Maccabiah experience to thousands of young Jewish athletes who wouldn't otherwise be able to afford it.
